TRIBUTES

Parents

Our Dear Waithigeni, Words cannot express the pain of losing you. You were more than a daughter, you were a blessing to our family and your love touched everyone who had the privilege of knowing you.

We will forever cherish your laughter, your generous heart and the selflessness with which you showed up for those you loved. You had a special way of bringing joy into our lives, and you never hesitated to put others before yourself. Your presence brought warmth to our family, and your absence leaves a space that can never be filled.

As parents, there are no words to describe the pain of saying goodbye to a child. We wish we had more time, more conversations and more moments together. We thank God for the gift of you, for the years we shared and for the beautiful memories that will remain with us forever.

Rest Peacefully, Our Dear Daughter. You Will Forever Live In Our Hearts. We Love You Very Much.

Siblings

Our dear Anne, where do we even begin? There are so many things we will miss about you, but perhaps we will miss your laughter the most.

As we look back on our childhood, one memory keeps coming to mind. Remember that day we all hid under the dining table because Dad had come home late and we were watching shows we probably had no business watching? We thought we were safely hidden until you started laughing. You laughed so hard that you gave us all away. Before we knew it, the rest of us had burst out laughing too, including Dad. That was you! Your laughter was contagious, and somehow, even in moments when we were supposed to be in trouble, you found a way to make everything joyful. We will treasure that memory forever.

Beyond the laughter, you had the biggest heart. You were selfless in a way that words can hardly describe. You were the sister who would drop everything to come through for any one of us. Whenever we needed help, support or simply someone to show up, we knew we could count on you. You never hesitated to be there for your family. You showed us what it meant to love through action, generosity and sacrifice. It is difficult to accept that we will no longer have you here with us. We will miss the conversations, the laughter, the family moments and even the little things we probably took for granted. We wish we had more time, more memories to make and more opportunities to tell you just how much you meant to us.

Thank you for being the sister you were. Thank you for loving us, standing by us and giving us memories that we will carry for the rest of our lives. You may no longer be physically with us, but your love, kindness and laughter will forever remain part of our family story. You have left a space in our lives that no one can ever fill. We take comfort in knowing that we were blessed to have you as our sister. We will hold on to the beautiful memories, tell your stories and keep your spirit alive in the way we love and show up for one another.

Rest peacefully, our Dear Sister. We love you. We miss you and We will carry you in our hearts always.

Wachira

Dear Gen, No words can fully express how much it hurts to lose you. But no amount of time will ever erase the impact you had on my life or the beautiful memories I will always carry of you. You were more than just an aunt to me. You were one of the most loving, fun and special aunts I could ever have asked for. From when I was a little kid to the teenager I am today, you always had a way of making me smile and cheer me up. One memory that will always make me smile is from when I was about five years old. I remember making jokes about you, Shiru, Susan and Shiku, and even bringing my little cousin into the jokes. Everyone would burst into laughter, while I would be left standing there confused, wondering what was so funny.

Those moments may have seemed small at the time, but they are memories I will treasure forever. Beyond all the laughter, I will also remember how much you encouraged me. You always reminded me to work hard and put my best effort into my studies. Even when I joined boarding school and would call Mum, I would often get your greetings passed on to me. Those little messages meant a lot because they reminded me that you were thinking of me, supporting me and keeping me in your prayers. I am so grateful for the love you showed me, the encouragement you gave me and all the beautiful moments we shared.

I wish we had more time together, but I will always hold on to the memories and lessons you left me with. I will miss your laughter, your warmth and the special place you had in my life. Though I may not see you again, you will always be part of my story.

Rest well, Gen. I love you, and I will miss you always.

Tribute from Nephews and Nieces

Rest in eternal peace, Auntie Waithiegeni. You were such a warm, friendly and loving soul. I will forever treasure the beautiful memories of our childhood and the kindness you always showed us. Your passing leaves a void that words cannot fill. To the entire family, may God grant you strength, comfort and peace during this difficult time. May you find comfort in the beautiful memories and the love she leaves behind. You will forever remain in our hearts. Sleep well, Auntie.

Tribute from Cousins

From childhood adventures to adult milestones, life was simply brighter with you in it. Though you are no longer walking beside us, your love and light remain a permanent part of our lives.Rest easy, cousin—until we meet again."

Tribute from Aunts & Uncles

Our dear niece Waithiegeni, You held a special place in our family and in our hearts. We watched you grow into a loving daughter, a sister and a woman. We will remember your strength, the moments we shared as a family, and the love you had for those closest to you. Your presence at family gatherings and the simple moments we shared will now be memories we hold.

Your passing has left a space in the family that cannot be filled but we choose to remember your life, the love you gave and the many ways you touched those around you.

We pray that our almighty Father grants you eternal peace and gives strength and comfort to your parents, sisters and brother and to all of us who loved you. Those we love do not go away, they walk beside us every day unseen, unheard but always near. Rest peacefully Waithiegeni. You will remain in our hearts, missed and never forgotten.

SALAMA MOYONI

Nionapo amani kama shwari, Ama nionapo shida;
Kwa mambo yote umenijulisha, Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Salama, Salama, Rohoni, Rohoni,
Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Ingawa Shetani atanitesa, Nitajipa moyo kwani;
Kristo ameona unyonge wangu, Amekufa kwa roho yangu.

Salama, Salama, Rohoni, Rohoni,
Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Dhambi zangu zote, wala si nusu, Zimewekwa Msalabani;
Wala sichukui laana yake, Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Salama, Salama, Rohoni, Rohoni,
Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Ee Bwana himiza siku ya kuja, Panda itakapolia;
Utakaposhuka sitaogopa, Ni salama rohoni mwangu.

Salama, Salama, Rohoni, Rohoni,
Ni salama rohoni mwangu.
